

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Doctor Rosson is having repairs done on his residence.

The United States Trial Jury were discharged yesterday.

Four teams were loaded with pipe yesterday for Keating's.

W. J. Kingbury, of Tempe, was here attending court yesterday.

The Farmers' Canal Company are putting the headgate in their canal.

Nearly all the stores have extra clerks, owing to the rush for holiday goods.

The bee-keepers held an interesting meeting at the City Hall yesterday.

T. J. Trask sent out a load of supplies to the Union mine for W. A. Farish.

W. O. Adams was thrown from his horse yesterday and quite severely injured.

There were several Tempe ladies in Phoenix yesterday, making holiday purchases.

Quite a number of important real estate transfers have been made in the last few days.

R. J. Turner will reopen tomorrow the old Black horse shoeing shop, next to Gibson's stable.

A. M. Franklin and W. A. Bolton were among the many arrivals from Tempe yesterday.

There are a great many wild ducks below town on the river, and in the alfalfa fields, near Keller's ranch.

Philip K. Hickey has sold to Nancy Caviness, for $2500, lots 1, 2 and 3 in block 14, Neahr's addition.

Demerbaix yesterday took a load of supplies from Goldman's and started for his mines in the Bradshaws.

Goldman & Co. have a new two-horse delivery wagon. A common one-horse outfit couldn't do their work.

Hank Williams and Johnny Packer have discovered some rich placer gravel in the Santa Maria Mountains.

James B. Gilmore has bought lot 2 of the Hermosa tract of land, near Tempe, from Perry Wickham, paying $1000 for it.

A patent has been issued by the Government to H. A. T. Hanson for a quarter section of land in Township 1, R. 4 E.

The Federal business of the session in the courts was wound up yesterday by the discharge of the United States Trial Jury.

M. E. Collins yesterday sold lot No. 10 in Collins' Addition to C. D. Story for $200. There were no improvements on the lot.

W. P. Traut and A. G. Sandberg, who have been here on the United States Trial Jury, left on this morning's train for Casa Grande.

H. W. Ryder received two carloads of lumber yesterday and sent out one load to the Arizona canal and one load to the Farmers' ditch.

J. D. Henderson, Los Angeles, M. T. Strickland, Marion Mine, and R. C. Powers, Gila Bend, registered at the Commercial yesterday.

An old Frenchman, a prospector, 63 years old, died yesterday at the County Hospital with an abscess of the liver. He had been there only ten days.

Ed Ennis, while distributing electric light poles yesterday, fell from his wagon and one of the wheels ran over his foot, fracturing several of the small bones.

R. G. Banta and J. A. Cuper made affidavit before Clerk of the Court Stout yesterday for homestead entry, and J. S. Armstrong made final proof on desert land entry.

Regular meeting of Arizona Lodge, No. 2, F. & A. M., will be held at the new lodge rooms in the Monihan building tonight. A full attendance is desired. Election of officers.

G. B. Norton was yesterday thrown from a bucking horse and sustained a forward dislocation of the right shoulder. Dr. Helm was called and dressed the wound, leaving the patient comfortable.

Messrs. Draper & Co. have opened a new and neat grocery store in the Fry Building on Washington street. Mr. Draper is lately from Mississippi, and being satisfied that there are bright prospects in store for Phoenix, has settled for business.

The lady relatives of the members of the Masonic fraternity are requested to meet at the new lodge rooms on Tuesday afternoon December 23, at 2 o'clock, to consult with a committee appointed to prepare for a formal opening of the new lodge rooms on Monday evening December 29, 1890.

Kemp & Co. are doing a rushing business in wagons. A carload was received only a week ago and there were very few of the wagons left yesterday. Another carload is expected in today and half of them are already spoken for. This firm shipped two carloads of alfalfa hay to California yesterday.

A pleasant party composed of Mrs. Goodrich, Misses Bryant, Franklin, Goodrich, Buck, and Messrs Herman, Williams and Porter picnicked Sunday at the Hole in the Rock. A coach and four took them out and an elaborate luncheon was an especially interesting part of the programme after their arrival.

Last evening at 8 o'clock Professor F. L. Smart, principal of the Phoenix High School and Miss Mattie Foster, of Illinois, were united in marriage by Rev. George L. Pearson, at the residence of W. D. Hamman. Miss Foster is a stranger here, only arriving from her home in Illinois yesterday. Professor Smart has the best wishes of a host of friends in his matrimonial venture.

Probably there are fewer busier men in Phoenix just at this time than Doctor Helm. Yesterday morning he was called to Tempe and took the 4 o'clock train. In his absence his wife was compelled to answer in person three different calls. Before he had been back an hour he was called to dress the wounds of three different persons, happening on the street from accident.

— JUST OUT — A NOVEL OF TODAY —

IS THIS YOUR SON, MY LORD?

A REALISTIC NOVEL OF TODAY, BY HELEN H. GARDENER,

Author of "A THOUGHTLESS YOUNG MAN," "MEN, WOMEN AND GODS," "SEX IN BRAINS," etc., etc.

With full-page Portrait of the Author, from recent Photograph by Sarony.

THIS NOVEL is without question the most radical and, in many respects, the boldest assault on the respectable conventionalities and immorality in high places that has ever been written.

AS A NOVEL it is brilliant, absorbing, and at times highly dramatic. The reader's interest is held from the opening line to the last word of the book, and, while crying out and vital problems are brought before the reader in a vivid and realistic manner—there is not a single utterance from cover to cover; nor does the reader's interest flag, owing to the morbidly sensational. The terrible truths are so vividly pictured that they will, in themselves, suggest to every thoughtful mind the urgent need of positive measures to elevate the standard of morals.

AS AN EXPOSE of the injustice which is meted out to woman by society, and as a revelation of the shame and evil which today pass almost unchallenged under the cloak of respectability, this story stands unrivaled. It is the earnest plea of a brave and noble-hearted woman for the triumph of a higher standard of morality and the abolition of hypocrisy, cant, and dishonesty in thought as well as in action.

THE HARVARD FAST SET are mercilessly handled by the author, a piece of pen picture which will anything but please the Fast Harbors of fair Harvard.

PRICE, PAPER COVER, 50 CENTS; CLOTH, $1.00. Discount to the Trade.

THE NESTOR OF THE MAGAZINES.

"According to Homer, Nestor, the old warrior and the wise counselor of the Greeks, had ruled over three generations of men, and was wise as the immortal gods."

The NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW

has been in the van of American thought for more than three-quarters of a century, ranking always with the best and most influential periodicals in the world. It is the mouth-piece of the men who know most about the great topics on which Americans require to be informed from month to month, its contributors being the leaders of thought and action in every field. Those who would take counsel of the highest knowledge on the affairs of the time, and learn what is to be said regarding them by the recognized authorities on both sides, must therefore read THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW, the Nestor of the magazines.

The NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW is ahead of any magazine this country has ever seen in the importance of the topics it discusses and the eminence of its contributors. — Albany Argus.

"Has become, as it were, the intelligent American citizen's hand book on great questions of the hour." — Buffalo Express.

"THE NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW touches Americans on almost every point in which they are interested." — Boston Herald.

"A moulder of intelligent opinion by the impartial presentations of both sides of important subjects." — Philadelphia Public Ledger.

The list of recent contributors to the REVIEW forms a roll of representative men and women of the time, including W. E. Gladstone, J. G. Blaine, Cardinal Gibbons, Speaker Reed, Ex-Speaker Carlisle, W. McKinley, Jr., Ouida, Miss Adam, General Sherman, Admiral Porter, Miss Blavatsky, T. A. Edison, Bishop H. C. Potter, Edward S. Phelps, Chas. S. Farnell, A. J. Balfour, John Morley, Col. R. G. Ingersoll, Henry George, Chauncey M. Depew, Edward Bellamy, Professor James Bryce, Gail H. Millard, etc., etc.
